Manifest Slow Food Market 2023

Slow Food's philosophy for the sustainable production and processing of food into enjoyable products and dishes is summarised in the Slow Food Manifesto. The Manifesto is an expression of our philosophy and commitment to good, clean and sustainably produced food and its responsible enjoyment.

The Slow Food Manifesto is based on twelve principles which, individually or in combination, serve as a guide to implementing the Slow Food philosophy and the philosophy of Slow Food Market:

- Respect for regional food and its cultural value.
- Respect the seasonality of food and offers.
- Preferential use of typical regional products.
- Access to the products through their story (storytelling).
- Promoting sustainable, animal-friendly production methods and sustainable agriculture.
- Search for meaningful new developments and advancements of traditional, seasonal and regional food and recipes.
- Combining traditional, regional and culinary heritage with innovative impulses from outside.
- Focusing on a small number of high-quality, genuine and fresh products.
- Networking of like-minded consumers, restaurateurs, producers, traders and scientists to form a network of good taste.
- Production in small enterprises with less than 50 employees.
- Fair compensation for employees at all levels of the hierarchy.
- Use and promotion of traditional crafts in the production process.

With your signature you confirm to act and produce according to the Slow Food philosophy.

GENERAL TERMS AND CONDITIONS (T&Cs)

Registration and entering into the contract

The exhibitor documents of the organiser for holding the holding shall be regarded as an invitation to treat. An exhibitor registration shall be regarded as binding.

The contract shall enter into effect on written confirmation of registration by the organisers. Registration may be rejected without reason. With registration, the exhibitor acknowledges these Terms and Conditions and other exhibitor documents (registration form, information, stand construction, price lists, service and ancillary costs).

Co-exhibitors

Co-exhibitors shall be regarded as individuals, companies or organisations appearing in any form at the stand of another individual, company or organisation, whether by means of addresses, items, brochures or personal appearance. Co-exhibitors shall register separately and will only be permitted at an exhibition with the express consent of the exhibition management. The same conditions as for the main exhibitor shall apply. In addition, the registration form must also be signed as legal by the main exhibitor. With shared stands, one of the exhibitors shall take on the obligations of a main exhibitor, while the others will be regarded as co-exhibitors. The main exhibitor shall also be liable towards the exhibition management for the obligations of the co-exhibitors. Each co-exhibitor shall pay the fixed exhibitor fee and any ancillary costs.

Admission requirements

The Exhibition Management decides on the admission of persons, companies, organisations and exhibits in consultation with Slow Food Zurich. Rejections are made without justification. No claims will be recognised by exhibitors or third parties arising from the admission or rejection of persons, companies, organisations or exhibits. In principle, only goods belonging to the list of products or the specialist area and registered may be exhibited. The Exhibition Management may require precise details of the individual goods to be exhibited. In this case, non-registered or non-approved goods may not be exhibited and the Exhibition Management reserves the right to remove such goods from the stand at the exhibitor's expense. The Exhibition Management is entitled to impose a restriction on the requested stand area and the registered exhibits. Special placement requests and exclusions of competitors cannot be accepted as a condition of participation.

Payment terms

The invoice for the exhibition area (100%) will be invoiced after the contract has been entered into as of December and shall be paid within 30 days as of invoicing. The final invoice together with all ancillary and additional payments shall be paid within 10 days after invoicing. By no later than the start of the official admission period, the exhibition management must be in possession of payment or legally valid proof of payment, otherwise the exhibition management shall be authorised to refuse the exhibitor access to the premises or, as may apply, clear the stand immediately at its costs.

Stand allocation

Requests for position will be considered as far as possible, but not accepted as a condition. Position will be dealt with according to subject area and individual requirements. The overall appearance of the exhibition shall be decisive. Objections shall be sent by registered mail within 7 days of the plan being sent, otherwise the position shall be regarded as accepted. Where required, the organiser is entitled to allocate the exhibitor another space in another location, amend the size and dimensions of their stand, relocate or close entrances to the hall or open spaces, and undertake other structural changes deviating from those already confirmed. The organiser shall in no way be liable towards to the exhibitor for consequences resulting from the position or surroundings of their stand.

Electricity/waste

Power consumption and power connection shall be charged separately. Waste shall be charged at a fixed rate of CHF 3.50 per square metre of exhibition space in all halls. The main exhibitor shall be invoiced at CHF 1.25 per square metre of exhibition space for power consumption.

Direct sales/tasting sessions

The direct sale of goods and tasting services shall be permitted. Stands at which food and drink is given out for consumption for free or payment (in the sense of a bar or public house business) and catering shall be subject to Cantonal legislation regarding catering business. The mandatory permit for tasting session stands and catering operations shall be obtained collectively by the exhibition management for all operations. Fees for these permits shall be charged proportionately to the owners of tasting session stands and catering operations. The organiser accepts no liability for any official prohibition of advertising or sales.

Promotional measures

Free raffles, competitions and promotional measures of any nature shall only be permitted with written consent of the organiser.

Insurance

All exhibitors shall take out insurance for items exhibited and stand equipment against fire and natural disasters, as well as third-party liability insurance. In addition, also insuring items exhibited and stand equipment against damage and loss during the exhibition and when transporting to and from is also recommended for exhibitors.

Liability for assistants

In accordance with Article 55 or, as may apply, 101 of the Swiss Law of Obligations, the exhibitor shall be liable for damage caused by suppliers, stand constructors or other assistants employed by the exhibitor.

Guarding

For security reasons, individual guarding of stands may only be commissioned by the exhibition management. While stand staff are absent, exhibitors shall lock objects with a value of CHF10,000 or more in a strongroom (in particular at night). Keeping cash, jewellery, data storage, technical components etc. in a safe is recommended.

Force majeure

In the event of compelling reasons, third-party fault, chance, political and economic events as well as official orders, the exhibition management shall be entitled to postpone, curtail, or extend an event or adapt the operation to the circumstances. In such cases, the exhibition management rejects any liability and the exhibitors are neither entitled to terminate the contract nor compensation. Payments already made shall be reimbursed to event-ex ag after deduction of any costs and expenses incurred. Any unforeseeable circumstance for which neither the exhibition management nor the exhibitor are responsible, including force majeure, shall be regarded as chance.

HALLE 550 rules

The rules for HALLE 550 shall form an integral component of these provisions, with the exception of facts otherwise governed in these exhibitor provisions. The rules for the exhibition site are available on request. The exhibition management is entitled to issue instructions. Anyone not following directives may be excluded at any time from participating. The party involved or third parties shall, as a result, in no way be entitled to repayment of stand rents, fees, compensation or similar.

Stand construction

Private stand structures must be submitted to the organiser for approval. The maximum structure height in Halle 550 is 5m.

Terminating the contract

Where the exhibitor forgoes participating in the exhibition after the contract has been confirmed it shall pay the following compensation for costs:

With termination by 30.11.2022: 10% of the rental costs

With termination in the period 01.12.2022 up to 15.01.2023: 50 % of the rental costs

With termination in the period 16.01.2023 up to the start of the exhibition: 100 % of the rental costs

Once the stand location has been allocated, the full stand area price shall be owed. This shall also apply if the stand area having become free can be rented again. Cancellations shall in any event be in writing.

If the fair is postponed due to a pandemic

If the exhibition is postponed as a result of the restrictions due to a pandemic, the following regulation applies. Cancellation of the registration (via online registration or written confirmation by email) remains without cost consequences for exhibitors regardless of any deadline. Costs incurred by the exhibitor as a result of orders placed in his/her own name with third parties (e.g. for stand construction) or in the form of other expenses (expenses, hotel accommodation, etc.) shall be borne by the exhibitor(s) themselves. The event-ex AG will not pay any compensation.

If the fair is canceled due to a pandemic

If the trade fair is cancelled as a result of the restrictions due to a pandemic, the exhibitor will not incur any cancellation costs. Payments already made will be refunded. Costs incurred by the exhibitor as a result of orders placed with third parties in his/her own name (e.g. for stand construction) or in the form of other expenses (expenses, hotel accommodation, etc.) shall be borne by the exhibitor(s) themselves. event-ex AG will not pay any compensation.

Exhibitor tickets

Each exhibitor receives 1 card per 3m² of stand space (max. 20 pcs.). Additional exhibitor tickets can be purchased at CHF 15 per piece.. These tickets grant access to the exhibition halls already 2 hours before the opening hours.

Contract partner / transferring the contractual relationship

MARKT 550 is organised by event-ex ag. Any costs for additional exhibitor tickets, car park tickets or similar ordered by co-exhibitors shall be invoiced to the main tenant bound to the organiser. It shall be for the main tenant to pass on the costs to the co-exhibitor. The organiser shall be authorised to transfer the contractual relationship or resulting individual claims or, as may apply, duties to third parties domiciled in Switzerland (e.g. exhibition management) and may provide these third parties with associated data to the extent required. The organiser shall make the contract partners aware in writing of any transfer of the contractual relationship.

Jurisdiction / place of performance and debt collection

Sole jurisdiction for all proceedings as well as the place of performance and debt collection for exhibitors without a registered office or, as may apply, domicile in Switzerland lies with the courts of Uster/ZH.

Nevertheless, the organiser is entitled to assert its rights before any other competent authority. Mandatory legal provisions of Swiss Law shall be reserved. Should the wording of the exhibitor provisions translated into other languages lead to disputes regarding interpretation, the German version shall prevail. All verbal agreements and special provisions shall require written confirmation. The exhibitor provisions are an integral component of a contract being entered into (subject to changes). All subsequent circulars and written notices shall be regarded as a component part of the provisions.
